
MEL MARTIN 'S JAZZ AND SAXOPHONE NEWSLETTER

May, '07

Hello friends;

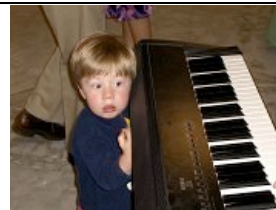

Catey and I got back from an excellent vacation on the island of Maui in early April and it's been a very busy time ever since. We stayed at a great condo (thanks Kenny) that was right on the ocean with a great view of Moloka'ai and Lana'ai and a lot of whales! I did a couple of nice gigs with my friend Gene Argel and New York trumpeter Valerie Pomenarov at Pacific O and Unisan Sushi.

I was invited by Paul Rinzler and Professor William Johnson to conduct an all-star, all-state Jazz Combo at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo and had a fine time with a great group of students. We performed along with the all-state orchestra and the fantastic wind ensemble conducted respectively by Jeffrey Grogan and the incredible composer Stephen Melillo. It was great to hang out with those guys. It was like a master class in conducting.

We did a gig for the Marin Arts Council's Open Studio with students from the San Marin Jazz Combo and my newest and brightest new student Zachary Cosmo Breindel (my Grandson) sitting in on drums. In fact he nearly knocked Tim Carr off of his drum stool!

Here's some upcoming Bay Area dates this month. We hope to see you there.
